Football Arguments

(Q.)—A player takes a kick, and instead of shooting at goal he hits the ball with the side of his foot, and passes it sideways about three or four yards. Should the referee give the defending side a free kick? The kick has been properly taken.

(A.)—If the kick is taken in a proper way, i.e., if the ball travels parallel with the goal line, it has been properly taken. Law 13 says it down that the ball must be kicked forward and straight. If the ball is not kicked forward, the kick shall be awarded to the opposite side. This is another free kick from which a goal cannot be scored direct.

(Q.)—Can you tell if a player sends a defending player off the field for swearing at him when the ball is within the penalty area? Does the referee give a free kick in the penalty area or a free kick? If he gives a free kick, can a goal be scored direct?

(A.)—In such a case the referee would give neither a penalty nor a free kick. The offence of swearing at the referee is a fringement of Law 13. The referee can either caution the player or order him off the field of play. If he merely cautions the player, the referee would restart play by dropping the ball at the place where it was when the offence sounded.

If, however, he ordered the player off the field of play, according to Law 17, he should restart the game by awarding a free kick to the opposite side from the place where the offence or infringement occurred. If the offence occurred within the penalty area, the free kick would be the same as a free kick. A goal cannot be scored direct from a free kick.

are many Soccerites who believe that the present will mend itself by the is year, and that the As- and the League will be reconciled. That there is a possi- bility of that not occurring is easily seen when it is remembered that some of the "splits" in the game in years gone by have taken considerably longer to patch up. Generally the situation mentioned above of two bodies competing in the same branch and in the same grade of a sport leads to bitter antagonisms, which makes the work of coming together all the more difficult. That constitution- alism will ultimately win out there is not much room to doubt. But those controlling the destinies of the game, while acting firmly, must legislate wisely, always remembering that they are charged with the responsibility of "fostering the game," and they must be care- ful to do nothing to its detriment.

Queensland Itinerary.

The following is the tentative itinerary of the New South Wales team which will visit Queensland in June:—

Thursday, May 31: Arrive in Brisbane.

Saturday, June 2: Play Queens- land.

Monday, June 4: Play Brisbane.

Wednesday, June 6: Play Ips- wich at Ipswich.

Saturday, June 9: Play Queens- land.

The matches against Queensland and Brisbane will be played on the Sydney Cricket Ground.

Numbering of Players.

A player in first and second grade football is not properly at- tired unless his jersey is correctly numbered according to pro- gramme. There have been some lapses this year, and club secre- taries are asked to keep a vigil- ant eye on their members.

Players' Insurance Fund.

Club secretaries and players are asked to keep by them the Rules and By-laws of the Players' In- surance Fund, and to strictly ob- serve the conditions laid down when occasion arises.

This will save much correspond- ence, and also time and labour to all concerned.

Season Tickets.

Season tickets are again avail- able. Gents., 15/-; ladies, 10/- Apply to your local club.

The Victorians.

A strong representative Victo- rian Soccer team will visit New South Wales shortly, and play a series of Interstate games.

The itinerary has not yet been settled, but matches will be play- ed in Newcastle, Sydney, and on the South Coast.

It is probable that the N.S.W. Test Match against Victoria will be played on Saturday, May 26th, and fixtures will be suspended in Sydney on that date.

Referees Wanted.

The Sydney Referees' Associa- tion announces that it has not sufficient referees to go round, and will welcome applications from those desirous of refereeing in the senior ranks.

Those interested should commu- nicate with either the secretary of the Sydney Referees' Association or the secretary of the M.S.F.A., Sports Club, Sydney.

Eastern Suburbs.

The latest decision of Roberson, of Gladesville-Ryde, not to play for Eastern Suburbs after all was very disappointing to Easts' officials and selectors; but, nevertheless, the tricolours are confident of lowering the colours of Holmesville to-day at the Sydney Cricket Ground No. 2.

To date Easts have played three games, which have resulted in a win, a draw, and one lost. There are a few weak places in the team which have been occasioned by the transfer of such good players as Sanderson, Brady, and Peel to the State League, but it is hoped these difficulties will be overcome before long. Robison is still a good custodian, though one would like to see him "getting down" to ground shots instead of kicking so often. Although young, Lambie plays very well at right-back, and, with such a fine partner as Comrie, should improve. "Jock" is playing as well as ever, and can still show a clean pair of heels to many younger Soccerites. Lockhead is a fine defensive player, and also passes accurately to his forwards. Gray, a new centre-half, should be an asset to his club once he settles down; he distributes the ball well, and is a cool, calculating pivot. Easts should persevere with him, as he is quite a young player. A good right-half has not yet been found to suitably fill the place of Peel. But where is Harry English? Or, failing him, Purnell? It is of no use including a young and practically inexperienced player in a first grade team, as was done against Pyrmont. Watson, of the reserve team, would have been a much better substitute. Dickens is a greatly improved right-winger, and now centres the ball with accuracy; it is pleasant to see him able to keep his place in the first team. Featherstone, as an inside-right, knows the game, but is too selfish; he should pass more often to his partner on the wing, and realise that he is not assisting his club by "beating" perhaps two opponents and losing the ball to a third. It isn't team work, and no one knows it more than the player himself. He would be well advised to alter his tactics, and thus materially assist his club. Roberts as a centre-forward is not playing up to the form he displayed in the same position last season; his best method is to keep well down between the opposing backs, and grasp every opportunity that arises to shoot for goal. Courtney's play pleases at inside-left, and he will doubtless make as many openings as possible for his speedy partner. It would benefit the team, however, were he (and Featherstone) to open up the play by occasionally driving the ball to the opposite wing.

TO-DAY'S GAMES.

Thomas' A should have no difficulty in towelling Lakemba A, and Warren Meths. to account for Austen's. Campsie Pres. A will fully extend Hill Pres., but that is all. Congs. A got a rude shock last week, and it will probably do them the world of good against All Saints' A.

St. Barnabas' would only get a bit and get some conditions they'd go farther. H. Park A and Punchbowl Meths. expect each to win, so a draw result. All Saints' B, Tempe Meths. B, Warren Meths. B, St. Andrews' (S.H.) A ought to collect points.

Campsie Meths. C expect to win their Hurlstone Park controversies.

Two rivals will meet on Canterbury No. 2 at 3.15—Balmain Bapt. and their Baptist friends. We expect the winners might get the Referee Poon will be kept busy.

Petersham Bapt. A are vastly moved, as St. Aidan's A will find out. Helping Hand Mission meet a team from their parent church, Balmain Meths. The result will be interesting.

Valley Pres. should easily account for Rockdale Pres. to-day. St. John's will fully extend Southville Meths., but not much do we think.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Games in Dalley Branch are reported that a Council meeting will be held in the Rozelle Methodist Hall on Tuesday next, at 7.15 p.m.

CHURCH PARADES.

The following Church Parades have been arranged, and all teams expected to fully support—South Sydney Branch, Balmain's (Dar.), May 13, 7.15 p.m.; Cook Branch, Campsie Meths. B, May 20, 7.15 p.m.; Dalley Branch, Balmain Meth. Church, May 27, 7.15 p.m. Other services are arranged later on.

COAT BADGES.

Coat badges for players and supporters are now ready, and team secretaries should make a point of getting a supply for their teams. Price, 1/6 each. They are also available from ground managers.

REFEREES' ASSOCIATION.

The next meeting of the Referees' Association will be held in St. Barnabas' School Hall at 7.30 p.m. on Thursday night. Referees who have not sat for the exam. must be present.
